

A Word of the Lord to the People of America

by Daniel Yordy

A word of the Lord to the people of the United States of America as it fills my heart - Daniel Yordy - a friend of the Lord Jesus Christ. I have been seized in the determination of God to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ, I am filled with all the fullness of God, out of my belly flow rivers of living waters, I cast down all powers of disobedience. My heart overflows with the love of God.

In short, I belong to Jesus; I live inside of the normal Christian life. I am not a "prophet"; I simply speak out of what Jesus has placed in my heart.

I do not speak to the nation, I speak to the people. What is known as "The United States of America" is nothing more than a construct of the imagination of men's minds that exists only by violence; it does not exist before God; He does not know it.

The time is now.

The Father of the Lord Jesus Christ chooses mercy over judgment. His loving kindness and mercy stands ready to extend over you, the people of America, if you will heed His voice. He is ready to turn your present course around; and He will do so quickly, if you will only turn.

God Almighty says to you - Do not imagine that this person or that person is your enemy, for I am your enemy for your own sake. I am the One who has appointed those who are devouring you.

Here is what I require of you, people of America, if you are to be saved from the reckless destruction of the course you have placed yourself upon.

One: Call your entire military home, all of your armies, all of your navies, all of your air power. Bring it home, disband your reliance on violence, and send the men and women you have ensnared in your deceit home to their families. Destroy all of your weapons of mass destruction, all of your nuclear bombs, all of your depleted uranium. Destroy all of your aircraft carriers and nuclear submarines. Close all military bases you keep in other countries. Destroy all military research facilities, especially the underground cities, for great evil exists in these places.

I do not need your violence to protect you; neither can all of your weaponry and military might defeat Me, says the Lord, if you will not heed My voice.

But I know you, that your power to destroy the world I created means more to you than life itself. You will scream, "Treason," at the messengers I send, and you will continue your reliance on violence for your protection. You believe that freedom comes from killing people; you do not consider that I order all things. Therefore here is what must come upon you. I do not do any of these things; your own path, the course you yourselves have chosen, will cause you to do this to yourselves.

The young men and women you have turned into killers to destroy the innocent in other lands, people My Son died to redeem, will come home, they will be taken by the evil spirits that you have trained them to obey and they will turn their violence upon you. More and more you will see it as your sons and daughters begin to kill people at home, some out of their own rage, but more and more ordered to do so by your own government.

For every bomb you drop overseas, another will drop upon you. For every home you burn on the other side of the world, a home will burn here. If you dare to use your nuclear weapons upon other countries, I will intervene, says the Lord, and I will send the same weapons upon your cities and you will be destroyed.

Do not think that you can kill enough of those whom you call "enemies." Though you succeed in killing all, yet I will find one out of the jungles of the Amazon, or out of the deep heart of Africa, or out of the high wastelands of Asia, and I will bring that one and give him power over you and he will bring you down, says the Lord.

And if you will not destroy your evil research into the power to kill and to dominate the world, then here is what I will do, I will remove My hand, and the horrors that your leaders are creating will climb out of the holes and the darkness and will pursue you until you are destroyed. Many of those horrors will come against you through your own sons and daughters whom you have trained to kill.

Two: Declare a "year of Jubilee" and cancel all debts owed by any person in America to any other person or entity in America. Cancel all of them, now. But you may not cancel any debt that you owe to others outside of America; you will pay back what you have stolen. You will take the security of your wealth and you will issue guarantees through Islamic banks that charge no interest, and you will labor until you have paid to all what you have taken. You will have no more dealings with banks that charge usury, for by compound interest and the "magic" of fractional reserve banking you are enticed and brought into bondage.

If you refuse, you will be buried in debt and you will watch with your eyes as your children are enchained and taken away to slave as the price of your debt. I need not do anything; your own thieving has already bound you.

Yet My heart longs for mercy, and if you will do all that I say, I will restore your prosperity, and I will enable you to pay back what you have stolen quickly, and you will see your children prosper.

Three: Dissolve the Federal Government in Washington, DC. Close all of its departments and institutions, especially the Federal Reserve Board. Give the District of Columbia back to the state of Maryland after you have destroyed all Federal buildings and occult monuments. Let the Governors and top legislators of the 50 states meet together to re-fashion a minimal union among the states. Use the original Articles of Confederation and the union of the Swiss Cantons as your model. Each state government will pledge its obligation to the debt owed to other peoples and will provide security of resources from within its borders, according to its population. You will have no "President," but only a caretaker who lives no differently than the family next door.

The Federal government of the United States is offensive to Me, says the Lord. I have no hand in any of its doings; its exaltation and pride are an abomination to Me. Do not imagine that placing a "Christian" at the top of that beast makes it acceptable to Me. I tolerate the evil of the wicked, but when my own people try to ride the beast, putting their hand to arrogance and pride, then I must withhold My hand of protection and mercy.

Yet I know you, says the Lord, that you will not heed me in this. For the work of your hands, this monster that you have created, this "glory" of human achievement, is more precious to you than your life. You bow to it; you cause your children to sin against Me by teaching them to pledge their hearts, hearts that belong to Me alone, in an oath of allegiance to its bloody battle flag.

You believe that the Federal Government of the United States is your savior in open defiance of the sacrifice of My Son, and you exalt the work of your hands, the glory of man upon this earth. You blaspheme Me by declaring the Union you have formed to be "indivisible." Yet it is not indivisible, and if you will not heed My voice, then I will break that union into pieces and it shall never come together again. I care for it not at all. My heart yearns for the people I have created and redeemed to Myself; the institutions of men are as grass to be burned. Yet the splitting that shall come upon you will not be state against state, but it will be neighbor against neighbor, group against group, and you yourselves will tear apart the entire fabric of your own society.

Yet I would not have it so, and if you will heed My voice, I will preserve the unity of the many states, in meekness and in gentleness.

Four: Return all property that you "own" in other countries to the people of those countries. You will not require any purchase price, but you will give it back. Yet I am a God of order; return it to the individual families who wish to return to farming or business in an orderly manner. Do not give it wholesale to the governments of those countries, for I have a controversy with them as I have a controversy with you.

Yet understand that if you refuse, then I shall turn My hand away from you. You will watch foreigners take possession of your own lands and you will see with your eyes as your children are made bondservants, toiling the land that I gave freely to your forefathers. They will work for the pleasure of others; and all the fruit of their labor will go out of this country to the prosperity of your enemies. And your children will beg for a morsel of what they themselves have labored to produce so that they can feed their hungry families.

Do you not understand, blind and arrogant Americans? For this is what you do now to untold millions of people in poor countries around the world. For you own their farmland, and you use their farmland to produce goods for your pleasure, and you employ their children for a pittance and they must buy their little bit of food from you. Then you insult me by blessing yourselves as you return some small part of what you have stolen and you call it "charity" and you call yourselves "generous." I do not know such "generosity," but you will know it when those who own your land cast a few pennies to your children to relieve their misery.

I care not how you exalt yourselves, for I hear the cry of the poor; the widow and the fatherless I hold close to My heart. Do you think I care if they are "Muslim" or "backward" or any such definition you place upon them to justify your cruelty? Whatever you do unto the least of these, you do it unto Me. When you burn "Muslim" families in their homes, you do it to My Son who gave His life for them. I care for them far more than I care for those who exalt themselves in their own conceit, even if they call themselves by My name.

Five: Dissolve the Monsanto Corporation and destroy its research laboratories. Search throughout all of your land and destroy all genetic engineering of plants or animals or humans. I have a controversy with Monsanto and they have angered Me. They have sought to take possession of that which I have given freely to all mankind, the very food that you eat. And they are creating monsters that will destroy this earth that I formed in My wisdom. You imagine that your "scientists" are smart and that they know what they are doing. But they are ignorant and they know nothing at all. And in their stupidity, they are creating evil that cannot be restrained.

If you will not heed My voice and destroy this evil from off your land, then I will remove My hand of protection and all the evil that Monsanto and its ilk are creating will be released upon you. The monster that your modern Dr. Frankenstein has tacked together in his ignorance will destroy you and it will destroy this earth. Yet you will not heed My voice, for I know you. You pride yourself in your "brilliance," and you will not humble yourselves to recognize your own foolishness. You really know nothing at all; future generations will look back and they will marvel at the "unscientific" ignorance of this generation.

Six: Eliminate all connection between political government and education, and between political government and health. Children are a heritage from Me, and I have given them to their parents. They do not belong to the state, and when the state claims them as their own, they are polluting that which is precious to Me. Stop taking your little babies to evil men to be injected with poisons in the name of "health." Open your eyes to see the scourge and the curse that has come upon your children by this evil practice. You may call it "vaccinations," but I call it sorcery. You adults may fill your bodies with drugs, and that is evil in itself, but when you inject your children's bodies with drugs - with sorcery, this is a personal offense against Me. You think you are smart; you have no idea how ignorant you are.

Let the pharmaceutical companies that profit from your deaths go the way of Monsanto. The poisons they create cannot heal you, no matter how much faith you put in them.

And stop brainwashing your children in the social zoos you call "schools" to worship and give their obedience to the state. When you obey the evil of this world, that is one thing, but when you brainwash your own children to do the same, I have a controversy with you, especially when you call it "Christian."

Seven: Return to Me. Seek Me with your whole hearts. Give no thought for your life in this world, but let Me be My life through you. Walk humbly among the nations of this world. Go to Iraq, go to Afghanistan with your heads bowed and beg forgiveness for your wickedness against those poor people. Go to Vietnam, to Cambodia, and clean up the poisons by which you poisoned those lands and beg forgiveness for your violence and your arrogance. Where before you have stolen and then “given” a pittance back in your self-righteousness, give generously and in humility, always believing that these wonderful people are superior to you. Receive of their hospitality and bless them. If you would humble yourselves and walk in My ways, I will heal your land and you will live in peace and in plenty.

Yet I know you, that you are proud with the pride of Sodom. You boast, “America will never apologize for anything.” Sodomy I forgive, but the pride of Sodom I must destroy. To you everything is about “America.” Let America cease lest you be destroyed when I destroy it. “America” is offensive to Me, says the Lord.

You imagine that if you do not show the world how violent and tough you are, then they will take advantage of your “weakness” and devour you. That evil imagination is nothing more than a violent rejection of Me.

It is not in My heart to allow any of this evil to come upon you. Yet if you will not heed My voice to turn away from your self-righteous violence against others, then the wickedness of your own doings will come upon you, and I will no longer restrain it. Right now My hand continues to restrain, but not for long.

And do not cry, “We support Israel; God will bless us.” I assure you, says the Lord, that your reliance on that wicked support will utterly fail. My controversy against that nation of iniquity from of old is between Me and them; but if you lean upon them for support, you will be destroyed.

Yet, if you will turn and do all these things I have required of you, in meekness and humility, seeking My face, then I will turn your sorrow into great joy and you will know abundance and liberty as you have never known it before.
